SILKS

For Summer Wear.

The blending of voices in a chorus requires the services of a Doctor of Music, a professor well up in the art of vocal culture. The blending of colors in dress fabrics, particularly silken weaves, is just such an artistic proposition. The color tones must not be harsh nor grating—the soprano and contralto must be sought out, brought together, so to speak, in perfect harmony.

We have in charge of our silk store one whom we are pleased to term a "Doctor of Colors"—knows the gamut of shade blending perfectly, and is here to teach you. He's surrounded by an array of finery only to be found in a down-to-date big city institution. They're priced right, because they were bought right. It's his expressed intention to make this a week of silk selling, and if extraordinary values at extraordinarily meager prices count for anything, he'll not be disappointed.

Just What You're After.

They landed yesterday—four cases—about 200 pieces of the "cleanest cut" styles in figured and striped Dimities it has been our fortune to secure this season.

Clear cut stripes, dots, figures and combinations of these. Rare colorings of marked beauty that were put there to stay, and best of all, such prices as these:

10c, 12½c, 15c and 18c Yard.

PERHAPS you don't know that candidates for admission to our collection of materials for dresses, whether of silk, wool or cotton, must pass the most critical inspection—cheapness alone don't pave the way. Quality and style are the first and foremost considerations. That's why we're getting the dress goods trade of this city. Of course, we're judging by our growing sales.

Khaki Cloth,

An all wool cotton suiting, in color similar to natural linen. You've probably seen this material worn by some of the returned "Soldier Boys;" now it promises to become a factor in ladies' wear. 27 inches wide; 25c yard. Find these in the lively Gingham Section.

Graduates,

One last word. From time to time we've put forth some reasonably good arguments why you should buy your complete outfits from us. Our preparations were made on a far-reaching scale, and we honestly believe that we haven't missed an item that's worth considering. White materials from 10c yard to $50 the suit. White Fans, Gloves, Hosiery, Ribbons, Laces, Embroideries, etc. Black Summer Dress materials also a specialty.

BRIEF MENTIONINGS.

Events in and About the City Given in a Nutshell.

The La Belle tin and plate mills resumed in full yesterday morning.

W. C. Spargo, who has been running a grocery on North Main street, for a number of years, has sold out to Martin Bartholomew.

Sanford Furbee, formerly with J. W. Blatchley Sons, has accepted a position with Foster & Watkins, and will have charge of the undertaking department.

Upchurch lodge, A. O. U. W., will give a social and supper at Arion hall to-morrow evening. Meister's orchestra will furnish the music, and the entertainment is the first of a series to be given by this lodge.

There was a general expectancy among councilmen last night that a session of the city legislature would be held this evening, but up to a late hour no call had been issued. The liquor licenses applications will come up if a meeting is held.

A very bad picture of Grover Cleveland and a line or two of commendation in the Wheeling Register this morning came near throwing some of our local Democrats into convulsions. They declared that they would have none of Cleveland for a fourth time—Bullaire Independent.

The big black bugs that congregated around electric light globes got their bumps last night. The hot weather brought them out in force, and their remains were to be seen carpeting the ground underneath the globes. In front of several stores on Market street, the sidewalk looked as though it had suffered from a shower of the insects. Contact with the lights proved fatal to them.

The rivermen's monument will likely be dedicated with appropriate ceremonies next Wednesday evening. C. E. Van Keuren, who has the affair in hand, having been delegated by the donor, Mr. Henry Schmutz, has arranged for a speech of presentation to the city by Mr. Charles J. Shuck, and speeches of acceptance by Mayor Sweeney and Mr. Frank W. Nesbitt. Members of council will be asked to grace the function with their presence.

Squire Dunning yesterday heard the cases against the four boys arrested by Constable Darby, at the instance of residents of Leatherwood. The boys were charged with bathing in the creek in a nude condition, and they were fined $1 and costs each. They were William McCurdy, James Marquis, Stephen Blatchley and Edward Helfer. Constable Darby has been employed by the Leatherwood people to patrol the creek at this point every Sunday, and similar arrests will follow if there is occasion for them.

Council Meets To-night.

Council has been called to meet this evening in special session, for the transaction of general business. Two calls were issued for the special meeting, one by Councilmen Ross T. Chew, Healy and Ratcliffe, and the other by Councilmen Bradbury, Watson and Ritter. The liquor license applications will be reported from the committee on petitions and remonstrances without recommendation, the vote having been a tie at the last meeting of the committee.

SUNDAY BALL

Results in Many Cases Against the Wheeling Players.

THE LARUE CASES DISMISSED

Yesterday Morning, Owing to the Non-Appearance of the Complainants and Their Attorneys—Two Other Cases to be Heard by Squire Greer This Evening—Former Conviction is the Plea the Players Will Enter.

The litigation over Sunday ball playing by the Wheeling Inter-state club is becoming decidedly mixed up in the local justice shops, and where it will all wind up is hard to predict. Three justices are already mixed up in these cases, and it is not unlikely that the matter will come to the attention of the criminal court grand jury eventually.

Yesterday morning there was to have been a hearing of the cases against the ball players in Squire Larue's court, the charge being the playing of the game with New Castle on Sunday, April 22. The attorney for the club intended to enter a plea of former conviction on the same offense, but in the absence of the complainants and their attorney, Mr. John O. Pendleton, the justice dismissed the case, and assessed the costs against the plaintiffs, Messrs. R. H. McKee, W. R. Palmer, Henry Foster and H. C. Connelly. The costs aggregate $120.

The club's attorney stated yesterday afternoon that the Wheeling players would institute suits for damages against the complainants mentioned above, in the sum of $5,000 on behalf of each of the ten players arrested, the suits thus aggregating $50,000.

Last night there was to have been a hearing of the case against the ball players for the playing of last Sunday's game, before Justice Greer, but at the instance of the club's attorney, the matter was postponed until this evening. The club will enter the plea of former arrest by Constable Stoehr, of Squire Rogers' court.

In addition to these cases, Constable Moran, of Squire Greer's court, served warrants on the players for the playing of the game of April 23, this being the third set of warrants got out for this particular game. The hearing of this case, too, will come up to-night. The club will enter the plea of former conviction in Squire Rogers' court, and the dismissal of the case brought before Squire Larue.

The Check Returned.

The directors of the Children's Home returned the check for $25 received last Friday from the president of the Wheeling Base Ball Club. The donation was part of the receipts of the Sunday game played on May 6th. The views of the officials of the institution were not sought before the public announcement was made that the Children's Home would be a beneficiary of a charity game of ball to be played on Sunday. At a meeting of the lady managers it was unanimously voted not to accept any of the proceeds of the game. The directors of the Home being of the same mind, the check was returned to the president of the club.

WE have taken in exchange a very fine square piano which we will offer this week at a great bargain.
